BOYS GYMNASIUM

On hand at the Homecoming Assembly to give the team a few pointers was Granny Savage, portrayed by Sharon King.

A comical skit for the Homecoming Assembly was provided by Lucy (Cindy Norman) and Linus (Sue Patterson) from Peanuts.

Hidden Talent Displayed In East Assemblies

Vivacious cheerleaders led the student body in the North-East pep rally held on the front steps of the school.

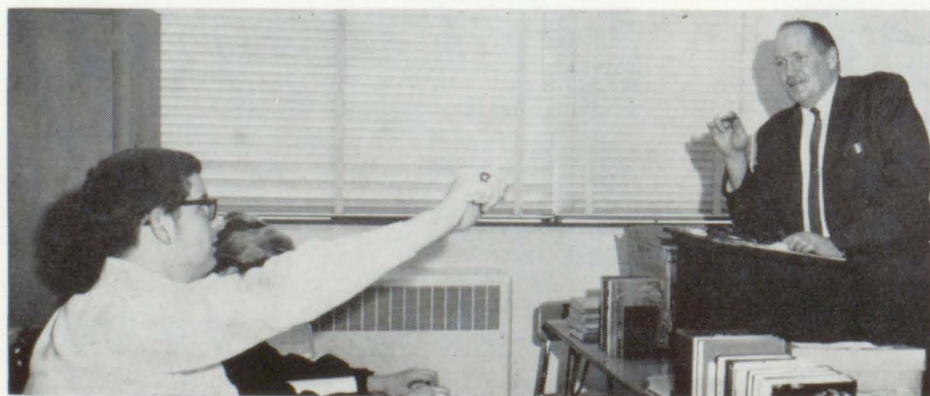

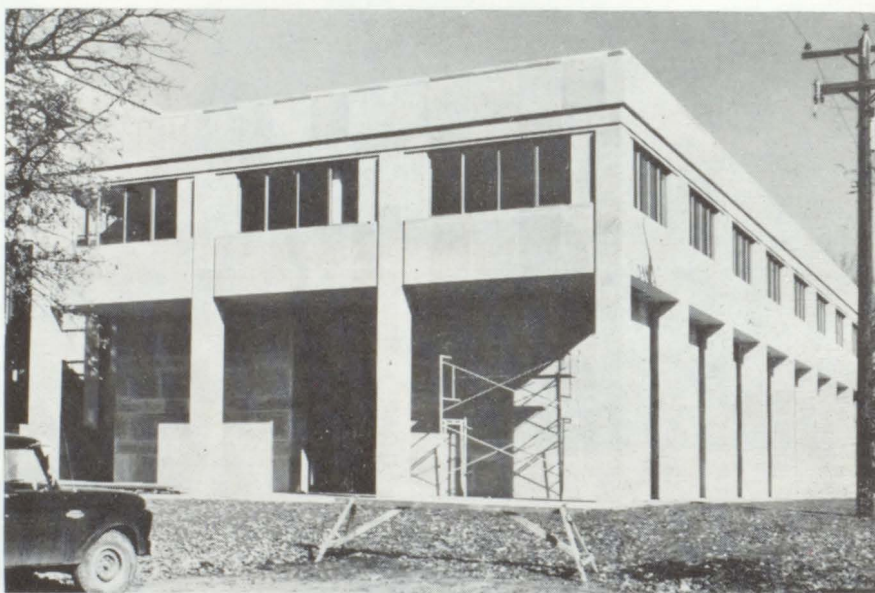

Hilarious entertainment for the student body was provided by Mrs. Rieck in the Scroll Assembly. Coach Savage looks on with amusement.

East Makes New Improvements

The newly-developed parking lot for EHS, located to the west of the building, was put to use this year. At present it covers 32,000 square feet and is covered with crushed rock. Future plans are that both the parking lots, east and west of the building, will be rearranged and resurfaced.

Upon final completion of the new library, there will be room for 20,000 volumes and study space for 180 students. Added attractions of the new library are the audio-visual room, the teacher curriculum center, and the unique mezzanine. Located on the spacious mezzanine are individual study carrels made available for students desiring private study.

English teacher, Mr. Oxenreider, calls on Jim Burk in a classroom of the new addition.

When they moved into the new addition eight teachers had the pleasure of occupying bright and spacious classrooms. The teachers enjoying this privilege were Miss Arnold, Miss Whitford, Mrs. Rieck, Mrs. Mastin, Mrs. White, Miss Langenfeld, Mr. Oxenreider, and Mr. Wadden. The new addition provided a renewed freshness and excitement.

New teachers observing Mr. Burton's demonstration of calculators are Mrs. Blenderman, Mrs. Stoeher, Mr. Waller, Mr. Lethcoe, and Mrs. Hayden. Not pictured: Mr. Vander Wilt, Mr. Wadden, Mr. Junck, and Mr. Yohe.

New Faces At East

Last fall seniors and juniors were confronted with the many new faces of sophomores who were eager to begin their new roles as students at "Dear East High." Some faces showed excitement and some calmness. There were also signs of nervousness along with those of confidence. Sophs came to East from Amos Hiatt, May Goodrell, Warren Harding, and Woodrow Wilson. Everyone was busy making reacquaintances with old friends who had not been seen all summer.

Dr. Jackson, principal, extends a hearty greeting to sophomores—all new to East last fall. Top left: Mike Van Zandt; top center: Doug Nelson; top right: Marvin Wilson; bottom left: Ruth Stroud; bottom center: Debbie Shepherd; bottom right: Dave Nelson and Dr. Jackson.

Workmen move safe from the temporary office to the new one.

Top-Degree Educator Heads East High School

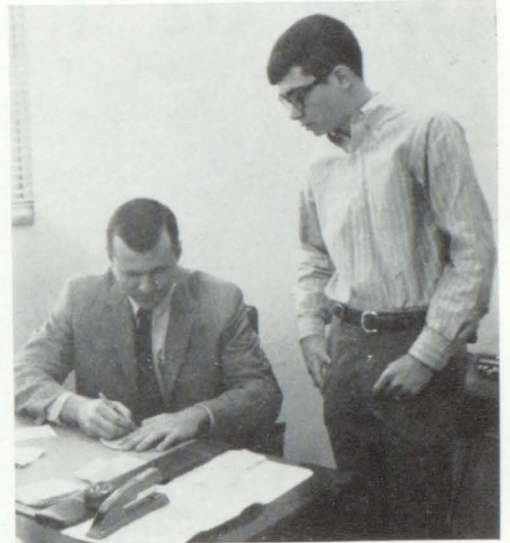

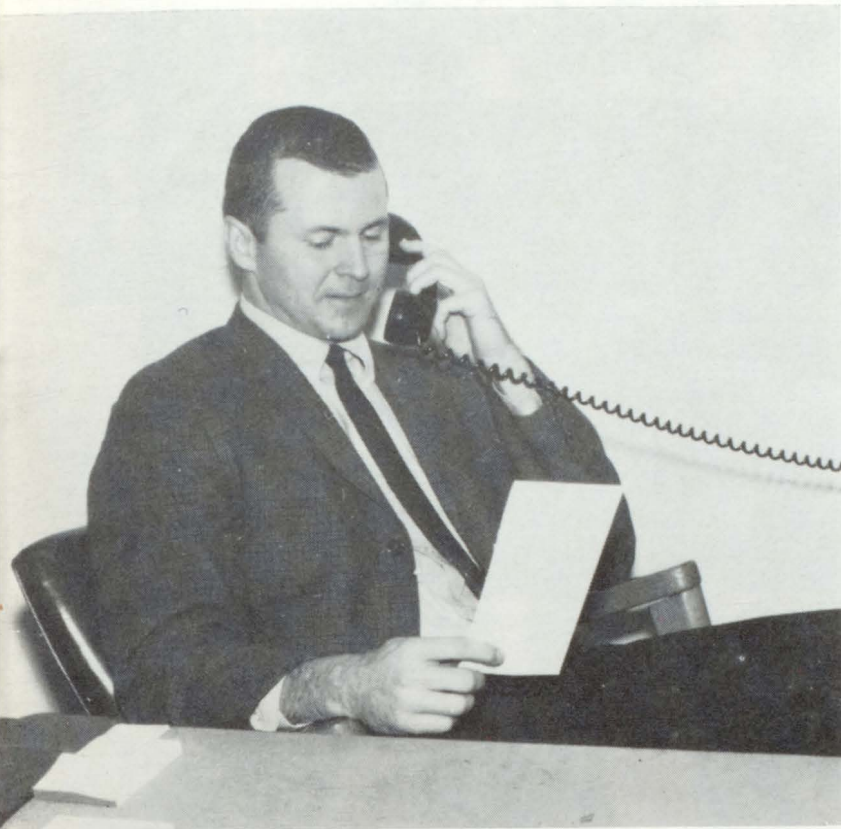

This is Dr. Jackson's fourth year at East. He was principal at Amos Hiatt Junior High for three years before coming to East. Last spring, Dr. Jackson received his Doctor's Degree from Colorado State College in Greeley, Colorado. He attended school for six summers, the equivalent of two years of study. He studied at Cedar Falls for his Bachelor of Arts Degree, received his Master's Degree from Columbia University in New York City, and has taken some graduate study at Harvard University.

Mrs. Schmeiser and Dr. Jackson congratulate each other on the completion of our new library.

Dr. Klahn, director of secondary education, explains a new curriculum program to Dr. Jackson (in background) and Mr. Aceto (right).

Mr. Aceto makes out a pass for Dan Mallory.

Mr. V. Roger Aceto is East's new vice-principal. In addition to guiding the boys Mr. Aceto works closely with Dr. Jackson and Miss Nelson to improve East High's over-all program. Before coming to East, he was an English teacher, assistant vice-principal, and golf coach at Tech.

East Welcomes Mr. Aceto

Miss Nelson joined our faculty in 1954 as a typing and shorthand teacher. In 1963 she became adviser. In addition to being responsible for the well being of the girls, she also has charge of all senior activities.

New Teaching Techniques Welcomed

Understanding the new English requires special depth. Here Mr. Wright reviews a composition with student Sue Swenson.

The English Department has widened its scope this year by emphasizing all four communicative skills more equally: reading, writing, speaking, and listening. The tenth grade, which receives the benefits of this innovation, divides these areas into two semesters. An English teacher stresses literature, grammar, and composition the first semester, and a speech teacher stresses speaking and listening the second. The purpose is not to de-emphasize the standard English course, but to give opportunity for development in spoken communication and the students' listening ability.

New Elective Offered to Seniors

The Social Science Department at East has, in the past, consisted of world history the sophomore year, United States history the junior year, economics and government the senior year.

This year, a new elective has been added to the senior curriculum. The course is called Behavioral Science and is the study of man and his relations with others. It includes psychology the first semester, and sociology and anthropology the second. Behavioral Science helps to fill the need for man to understand himself and others.

Students Learn To Appreciate Music

Mrs. Lutz directs the sophomore choir.

East High's Music Department, directed by Mrs. Lutz and Mr. Vander Wilt, enriches the lives of the many participating students and listening audiences. The band, led by Mr. Vander Wilt, added greatly to the enthusiasm at football games, basketball games, and pep assemblies. Performances at various junior high schools, the Nativity, and other school assemblies were given by different vocal organizations directed by Mrs. Lutz.

The highlight of the year for the entire music department was East High's presentation of "Kiss Me, Kate."

Creativity Is Stressed In The Arts

Offering many courses in the fine and applied arts is East High's Art Department, directed by Mr. Nicolet and Miss Skarshaug. Courses in fine arts, which stress the principles and elements of design and their practical uses, include beginning and intermediate drawing, sculpture, printmaking, and painting. There are also advanced courses and honor programs in which talented students may develop an art philosophy and style of their own. Students in applied art make use of many materials in textile design, ceramics, and woodwork.

Preparing A Vocation For The Future

Industrial Arts offer preparatory courses in drafting, wood-working, metal, and auto mechanics. While working in the shop and classroom, students learn workmanship, design, responsible thinking, and physical dexterity. Through individual projects, the student applies the fundamentals he has learned and discovers his potentials in this field of study.

Lee Town Paper Relays East High News

Each week Vicki McLaughlin and Lyle Miller make assignments of East High news to various members of the Scroll staff for the Lee Town Newspaper. Stories including coming events, one feature story, and sports events of 150 to 250 words in length, and at least one picture. Stories from the Scroll are used every other week.

Lee Town News Editors Vicki McLaughlin and Lyle Miller discuss topics for a news article for the newspaper.

Immediately following the distribution of the Scroll, the staffs decide on stories for the next issue. The next task is to make up the pages and assign stories to reporters. After stories are written, typed, proofread, and approved, they are sent to the printer. When all corrections are made on the printer's galleys, the Scroll is printed and distributed to students in homeroom.

Students Take Part In Government

DIANE FULLER
Secretary, Fall

Student government, the link between administration and students, is an important part of East High life. The fall Student Council, one aspect of student government, sponsored several new ideas this year. The honor system was proposed, by which deserving students have the option of going to the library or the student center during study hall. Another innovation was the East High Victory Flag, which is displayed after East victories.

Another aspect of student government is Student Court. It is composed of student representatives who judge violators of school rules.

Foreign Student Promotes Better Relations

Unni Karlsson, East's American Field Service student from Sweden, is an active participant at East High. She is a member of Drama Club, Pep Club, A.F.S. Club, Student Council, and All-City Student Council.

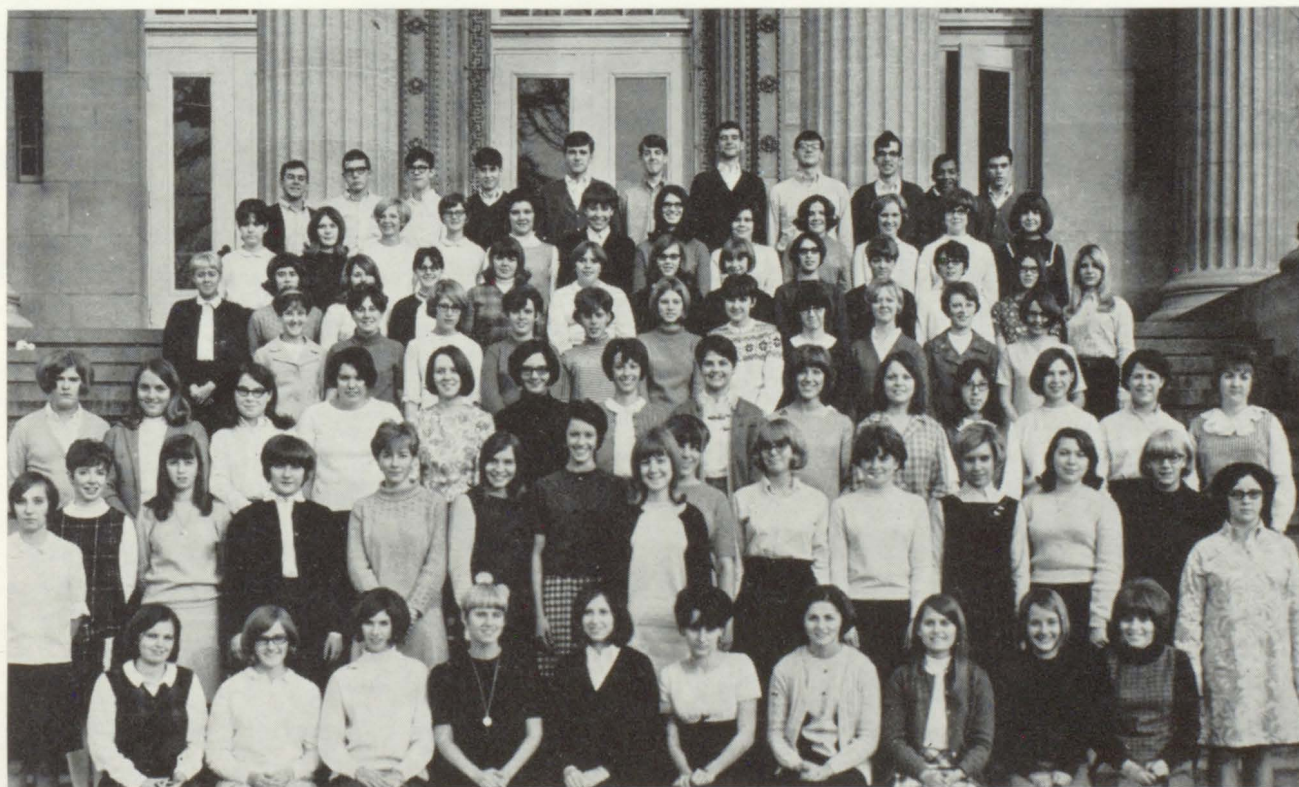

When Unni returns home to Goteborg, and to her parents and younger brother, she has two years of Gymnasium awaiting her (comparable to our junior college). Then she plans to attend the University of Goteborg.

Sophomores Improve With Experience

After getting off to a slow start this year, the sophomores closed the season with a solid team effort, to finish 2-5 for the season. After dropping one game to Dowling, the Canaries edged Newton 14-13, and went on to maul Tech 31-0. A tight game was played against Roosevelt, but the Riders managed to sneak through the winning touchdown.

Steve Sharp made the varsity squad this year, playing fullback. Starters Bob Hale, Don Levell, Kelly Rinehart, Gary Griffith, and Dennis O'Boyle did an outstanding job in pacing this year's sophomore team.

Behind The Teams...

The equipment managers are essential to the final performance of the team. Organizing uniforms and athletic equipment is just one of the many complicated duties they must perform.

Ginger Scores A 'Touchdown' With Students

Much time and hard work was spent in preparation of the fall play, "Time Out for Ginger." The play centers around Ginger, a "tomboy" who thinks that girls should be allowed to take part in boys' sports. After many strong objections are voiced, Ginger is allowed to join the football team, and as pre-arranged by the two teams, is allowed to make the final touchdown of the game.

The play was directed by Mr. Waller and the cast was as follows: Father: Denny Brown, Mother: Jean Sandquist, Ginger: Becky Houghton, Tommy: John Connors, Eddie: Andy Mosqueda, Joan: Barb Gritton, Jean: Marilyn Webb, Principal: Terry Parrish, Banker: Greg Lamb, and Maid: Linda Severson.

Our congratulations go to all who helped make the final performance of the play a great success.

Childhood Splashbacks By Synchronettes

"Splashes From Childhood" was the show performed by the Synchronettes under the direction of Miss Stewart. Some highlights of the show included both solos and duets, as well as a "Carnival of Animals." The scenery used was three dimensional and consisted of objects that reminded one of childhood. Some of the objects used were a lemon tree, animals, and candy. This program depicted skills used in a water ballet.

Red Suits Unify Scarlet Pep Sections

Bright new red Pep Club uniforms boosted the spirit of the E.H.S. pep section this year at football and basketball games. The club members wore their uniforms on game day to show the teams they were behind them. The uniforms consist of a red wool A-line skirt and a red vest with an "E" emblem worn with a white blouse.

For the first time a float for Homecoming was built by the Pep Club.

Throughout the year, this active club sponsored many interesting pep-filled assemblies and carried the Scarlet tradition of spirited support to new highs.

Recreation Provides Fun

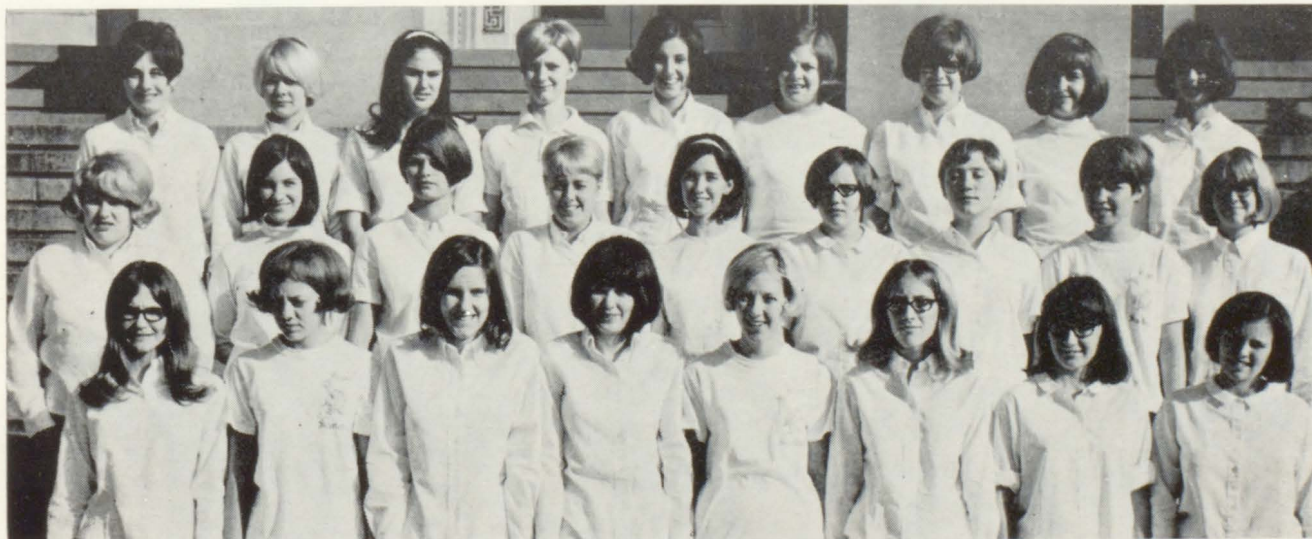

Girls' Recreation Association is a sports-oriented organization which sponsors several tournaments to provide each girl at East with the opportunity to participate in after-school athletic contests. This year's schedule began with simultaneous speedball and bowling tournaments. These meets were followed by ring tennis, line basketball, volleyball, and regulation basketball tournaments. Eight teams of ten girls each participated in this year's competition.

Each GRA member works to compile points towards the attainment of a letter by planning and playing in games and attending regular meetings.

An additional activity for GRA members this year was the swimming party held at the April meeting.

The entire cast included: Mary—Paula Holmgren and Debbie Perkins; Joseph—Dave Kramme; Angel Gabriel—Carmela Brown and Pam Paulson; Three Kings—Dennis Brown, Roger Cassell, and LeRoy Harvey; Psalmist—Greg Byerly and Brook Smith; Shepherds—Charles Chapman, Larry Krpan, and Steve Young; Readers—(coached by Mrs. Rieck) Toni Hooton, Rene Matzke, Paula Ritter, and Marilyn Webb.

Students Present Traditional Nativity

Christmas brings with it joy and good cheer, and to East it brings the traditional Nativity. Students realized the true spirit of Christmas as they enjoyed this moving presentation.

The Nativity this year was presented December 19 under the direction of Miss Cynde Smith and Mr. Terry Griffin. The A Capella Choir provided the music.

Spring Council Accelerates Fall Momentum

ALL CITY STUDENT COUNCIL: (Left to right): Shannon Folsom, Doug Priebe, Marion Sellers, Marilyn Kouri, Steve Ivanovich; Not pictured: Peggy Powell, Mr. Samuelson (adviser).

The spring Student Council, headed by Don Rice, had a busy season. First, they carried over the mural project and hung the two new sports murals in the Student Center. Next they supervised the purchase of eleven new records for the juke box. Within the Council, they divided into six discussion groups to discuss school problems. This council also had the distinction of being the first to elect both a secretary and a treasurer, giving it four elected officers.

Reliving The Roaring 20's

The Spree seemed most appropriate in 1968, a leap year, for gals treated guys. The "Roaring Twenties" theme was upheld by a casino, speakeasy, and other carnival-type booths reflective of the era. "Captain Beefheart and the Shipwrecks" provided music for dancing in a student center adorned with streamers, huge dice, balloons, and large playing cards.

Getting into the real mood of things, Judy Prather is seen opening the door for her date, John Herndon.

Girls' Club Members Discuss Latest Fashions

A coke party last fall was the kickoff for this year's Girls' Club. One of many activities was the Simplicity Style Show, where the girls modeled the fashions. Highlighting the year were the Spinsters' Spree and the Mother-Daughter Tea. As service projects, the girls gave Christmas toys to the Iowa Home Society and May baskets to nursing homes.

All-State Rowat Sets New Scoring Record — 1,114 Points!

The 1967-68 basketball team gave an outstanding performance during the season. East defeated Roosevelt on Roosevelt's own court, 67-63. With victories over Newton and Saydel, the Scarlets took the district title and went on to sub-state. With this their last year in the Big Six Conference, the Scarlets fought hard to leave a lasting impression. Lynn Rowat became the all-time Metropolitan scoring leader with a three-season total of 1,114 points and was named a member on the All-State first team.

Cheerleaders

The varsity Cheerleaders led an enthusiastic pep section this year at varsity football and basketball games and wrestling meets. Junior varsity Cheerleaders cheered for junior varsity and sophomore games and substituted for varsity members of the group when the regulars were unable to attend. Turtle-neck knit tops replaced the button-down white shirts. Red and white saddle shoes took the place of black and white ones. The Cheerleaders helped the Pep Club by selling a record number of bus trip tickets to district basketball games. Selling programs at the Boys' State Basketball Tournament was a combined effort of the Cheerleaders and the Lettermen's Club.

Assemblies, football and basketball games were among the many activities at which the Flag Twirlers and Majorettes performed. They marched in the Homecoming, Drake Relays, and Memorial Day parades. White marabou hats were received by the Majorettes to add to the attractiveness of their outfits. Special flashlight batons were used by the Majorettes for a distinctive routine. The Flagtwirlers, with the aid of boys, portrayed marionettes in one of their many routines. Linda Eaton is the captain of the Flagtwirlers. Co-captains of the Majorettes are Dottie St. John and Jean Sandquist.

'Kiss Me, Kate'

Tom Finney (Lucentio) and Debbie Gordon (Bianca) discuss their forthcoming marriage in the wedding scene.

On March 28 and 29 at 8 p.m., East High School presented the musical "Kiss Me, Kate," a play within a play. The main story centers on the four veteran actors who are trying to put on "Taming of the Shrew," the second play. Several solo numbers, singing by the chorus, and dancing routines such as those in the wedding scene and the finale, made up the highlights of the musical.

HATTIE AND CHORUS: Mark Jones, Janice Piper, Bob Howlett, Kathy Sorenson, Peggi Webb, Wesley Redhead, Cassandra Horton, Galaine Cason (Hattie), Carol Sorenson, John Hogate, Beverly Welch, Sherry Ruppe, Mike Speck, Kathy Wigg.

Costuming and makeup were major jobs in the production of the musical. Cathy McClain, in charge of makeup for the musical along with the assistance of about 20 girls, had the job of making up 60 people, including the chorus, the dancers, and the principals. Mrs. Rieck was in charge of the costumes with the assistance of Cindy Zschau. Helping Mrs. Rieck were many members of the faculty, many parents of the actors, and some of the actors themselves.

Andy Mosqueda merrily dances in his role as a gangster.

Directors

Directors for the musical were Mr. Waller, over-all director; Mrs. Lutz, vocal music; Mrs. Rieck, costumes; Miss Stewart, choreography; Mr. Vander Wilt, orchestra; and Mr. Nicolet, art.

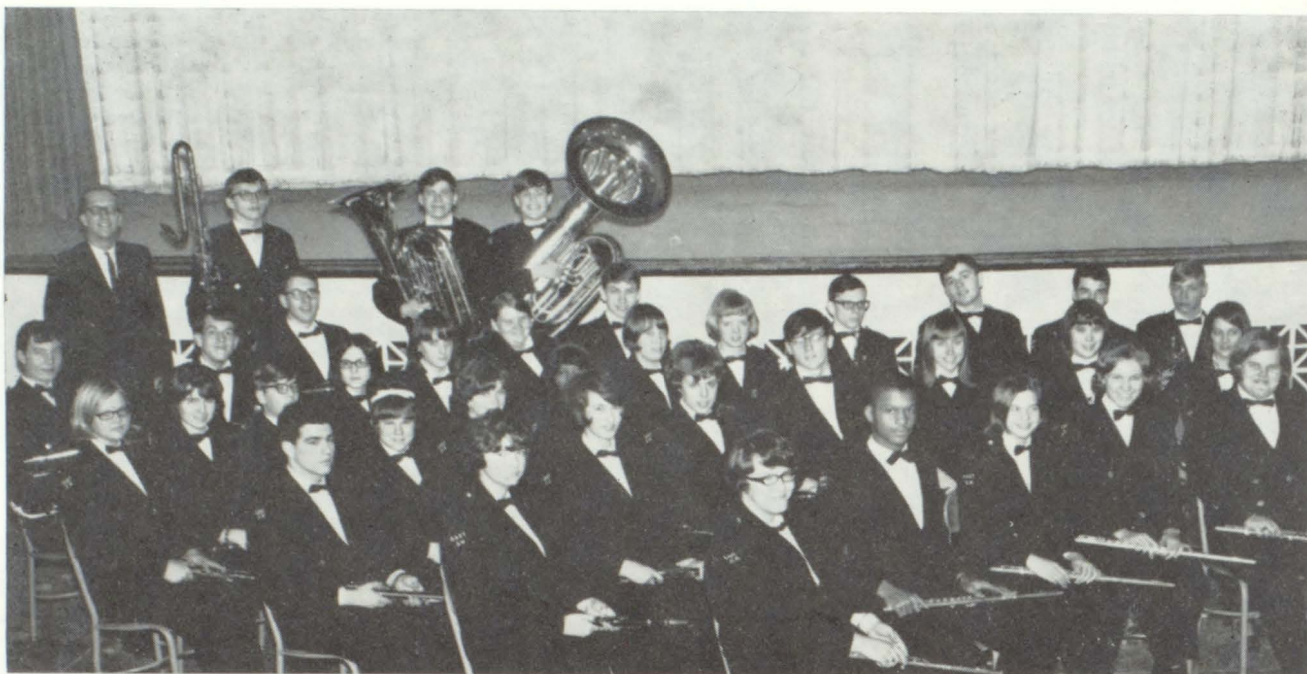

The orchestra, directed by Mr. Vander Wilt, provided the instrumental music for the musical.

Working behind the scenes, David Dowell, Bill Kern, and John Dennis make canvas backgrounds for the musical.

Golfers Tee Off For East High Victories

The girls' golf team, plagued by inexperience, tried hard to improve their scores. Hopes for an increasing interest and better turnout are high. More interested girls are needed to make up a substantial team, for the girls were forced to forfeit some meets because lack of participants.

The boys' golf team was well represented this year, because of an increasing interest in the sport. This year's team had two lettermen returning. The lettermen, combined with the other boys on the team, constitute a good season and a better outlook for the team.

Boys' Clubs Better East High

Lettermen's Club includes boys who have lettered in any sports at East. The lettermen display their achievements in the form of monograms, medals, and rings showing how many years they have lettered. All these are worn on black, white, or red sweaters.

Dale Haag, president; Greg Byerly, vice-president; Tom Powell, secretary-treasurer, and other members of Lettermen's Club, along with the cheerleaders, sold programs at the Boys' State Basketball Tournament. Selling programs is an annual activity of Lettermen's Club.

Gentlemen's Day, Pancake Day, and the Key Club-Faculty basketball game are activities sponsored by the East High Key Club.

On Gentlemen's Day, boys carrying a girl's books and opening doors for her are signs that chivalry is not dead. The members of Key Club sell tickets to girls and then draw a ticket out of a hat. The lucky girl whose ticket is drawn has the privilege of having her books carried for her. Gentlemen's Day is an annual event carried on by the Key Club.

Staff Cooperates and Creates

Under the leadership of Linda Fenton and Dennis Hall, co-editors, the 1967-68 yearbook staff was able to achieve more than any previous staff. A distinctive change made was that of the yearbook layout. Kathy Smith, layout editor, and her subordinates began by changing the order of sections, allowing the book to chronologically tell the story of the school year in pictures and copy.

The Senior Class

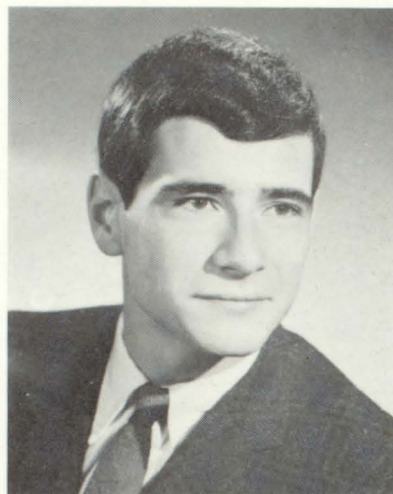

1968

Conceived: A Class

*We entered the year as one;
a unified body
intent on living for the present.
A Homecoming tie gave us the city title—
the 12B Formal with its whirl of beautiful people
—a breakfast—a party—a banquet—
one after another in rapid succession.
Suddenly,
the present becomes the past and the future invades our secure high school world.
The security blanket is thrown away
and from what remains our class emerges, not as one,
but as many individuals.
We separate
and drop, one by one, into the waiting world outside.
Our reign ends.
The good times and the bad times are over.
Our reign ends
and another year begins.*

Dedication Leads To Senior Daze

Seniors enjoy a private corner in the Student Center: Leona White, Marcia Leader, Diane Fuller, Nancy Pike, John Padgett, and Alan Lane.

Thirteen years is a long, long time
To wait for something so sublime.
The work was hard,
Our teachers encouraged,
If we wanted to quit,
Most parents discouraged.
The years crept by,
It didn't make sense,
We wanted to give up,
To end the suspense.
But, May thirty-first is graduation,
Thus ending our high school education.
We're proud and think it's really great
To be the class of '68.

E.H.S. Spinsters Get Their Night

One night a year, the shy, demure girls of East turn the tables on the boys and go on the prowl for their man. The occasion is the Spinsters' Spree and suddenly the Girls' Gym becomes one massive man trap. The night features entertaining booths, the favorite of which is the marriage booth pictured above. But all is in fun, and the boys enjoy a free night out as the girls foot the bill on this "turn-about" date.

The evening of January 6 will always be a memorable one for all who attended the 12B Formal. Everyone enjoyed dancing to the music of Keith Killinger and his band.

Greek Goddess Of Love Watches Over 12B

"Aphrodite: Goddess of Love" was the theme of this year's annual 12B Formal, held in the ballroom of the Fort Des Moines Hotel, January 6. As the guests entered they were greeted by dim lights, music by Keith Killinger, and decorations that carried out the theme very well. Table decorations consisted of two miniature white Greek columns with grapes and gold leaves as its center. Two larger columns stood on either side of the stage and a wine-colored cloth covered stairs leading down from the stage. At the edge of the dance floor was a small two-layer fountain with running water. All these decorations added to the highlight of the evening when the hostesses and their escorts were introduced. Each hostess was presented a small glass goblet with a wine velvet ribbon around the stem. The ribbon bore the name of the hostess.

Senior Breakfast — 'Good Morning World'

Cheery pre-breakfast conversationalists are Pam Paulson, Julie Allen, Linda Severson, Terry Webb, and Nancy Kimberling.

Accents of balloons, daisies, and streamers greeted the seniors of '68 in their "Good Morning, World" Senior Breakfast, held at 7 a.m. on March 14, in the cafeteria. The breakfast is the traditional kick-off activity on the Senior Calendar. After the invocation, an enormous amount of food was consumed. Trophies were presented to Greg Priebe and Mike Williams as winners of the "Mr. Legs" Contest. Mr. Joe Moore, head of Public Relations for Flynn Dairy, proved to be a thought-provoking speaker. Musical entertainment was capably provided by Ken and John Johnston. The breakfast appropriately ended with strains of "Dear East High."

"Happening Of '68"

Wearing grubbies and proclaiming "flower-power," over 150 seniors invaded East High for a dance-in, love-in, and laugh-in, creating the "Happening of '68." The super senior class party, under the direction of Jeanne Haworth and Mike Hooton, took place in the student center, the gym, and the swimming pool April 19.

The student center, decorated with flowers and psychedelic posters, served as a place to meet, to dance, and to buy refreshments. "The Pendletons" furnished the music.

In the gym, the seniors joined together in some rousing games of basketball, volleyball, battleball, and ping-pong.

To end the party with a splash, the seniors took a dip in the pool.

We know . . .

*Because we are young we know
(As only the very old know the old)
That three quick glances, two smiles, one laugh
On the way upstairs and we are friends,
And we keep each other so supplied
With reasons to grow old—
And yet to stay young is so important
We are not too surprised to find
That you have stepped out into the stars.*

Senior Mike Menough sneaks a Pepsi at his locker during lunch.

*Where will the next step lead me?
So abruptly I've passed from the security of these walls.
Now I must face a world of decisions that I,
myself, must make.
There's no turning back to those who patterned my high school days.
Three years past fade quickly into the obscurity of todays and tomorrows.*

Unaware that later my endeavors may provide reward—

I pushed the books aside for a time.

Then, to soon rely on them once more

With a realization that studies yield achievements and understandings.

It was far from all grind.

Meaningful friendships were established with those to whom I unselfishly and personally attached—

Friendships cemented, for a time, with secrets and shared experiences.

Will the closeness diminish as we separate and venture on?

And now . . .

I've discarded one enveloping shroud of knowledge.

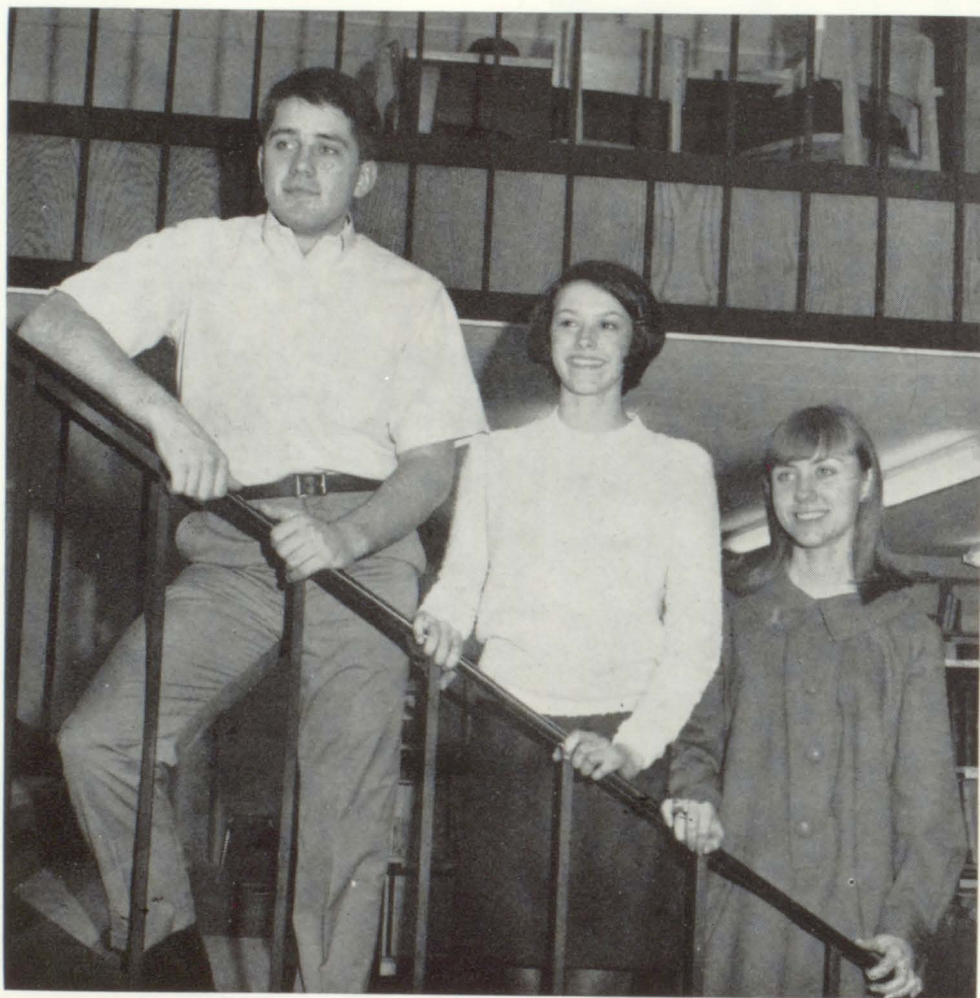

Weary, relieved for a time,

I'll go out to don a new cloak of learning, living—its form is still questionable.

Where will the next step lead me?

CONSIDER...
A CAREER
...NOT A JOB

When looking ahead to your business life, you want to think beyond just a job. Consider the kind of business career you want and judge the qualities of the company which is a part of that business. Life Insurance is a good business and the Equitable Life of Iowa is a good company — offering so many opportunities for the career man or woman.

Look into the Equitable, and you'll find all of the so-called fringe benefits offered by business generally, plus some that only Equitable has for you. Most importantly, there are so many phases of life insurance work that your opportunities for advancement and permanency are limited only by your own ability. In the Personnel Office, 1105 Equitable Building, you'll find Miss Pat Bush — discuss with her all the opportunities that exist for you at the Equitable — you may choose your career right now.

Tom Van Dorn — Steve Tywater

ARE OUR

Hybrid seed corn has been the Pioneer company's specialty for over 40 years. We're one of the top hybrid seed producers in the world today.

Expansion into other field seeds—grain and forage sorghums and alfalfa—has greatly expanded our market. Extensive background in genetic research has contributed to the growth of the company's Hy-Line Poultry Division, also.

If your future plans call for employment in the agri-industry field, remember the name Pioneer.

I've a future I must build

*There are plans that I must draw,
Then let this timid hand of mine
Be guided, line for line,
With that steady, certain trueness
Of the Hand that planned
This universe.*

*There are materials I must choose,
Then let this casual mind of mine
Choose with the wisdom of the Mind
That fixed the substances
Of things like grass and trees
And mountain peaks.*

*There are decisions I must make.
Then let me make them with that sureness
That divided land and sea,*

And day and night, the birds that fly
And beasts that roam the field.

There's a determination I must have.
Then let me bind myself unto such things
As principles, and truth, and right
With that same permanence
That holds in their celestial places
The sun, and stars,
And all the heavens' gems.

I've a future I must build.
So, let me build it with such care,
such tools, such wisdom,
And with such a rugged firmness,
That all the fiercest thrusts
Of host or elements
Cannot destroy it.

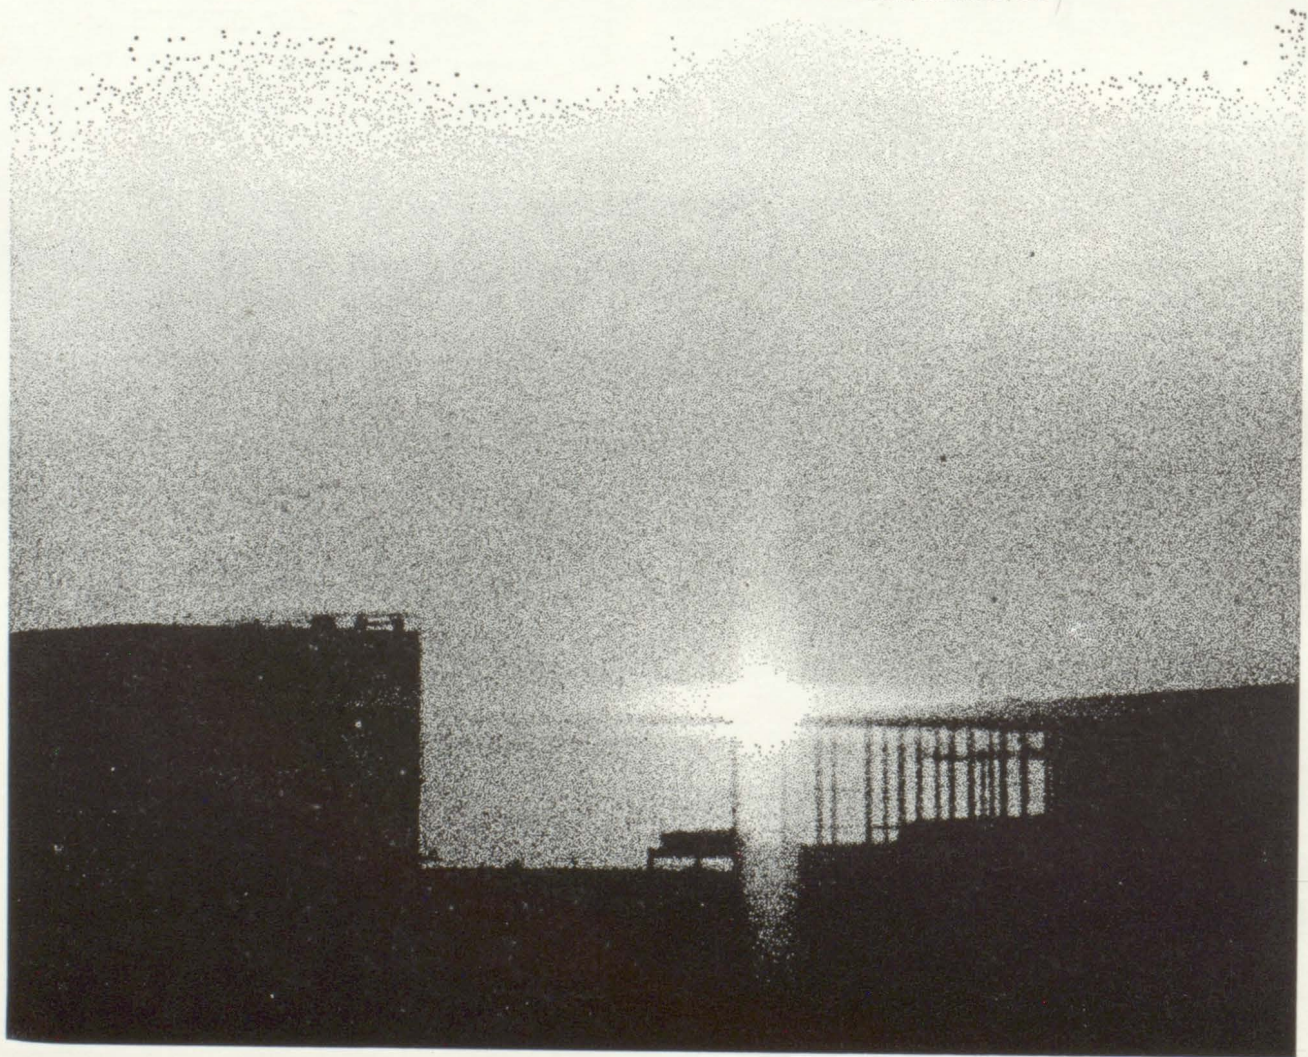

Aye, I've a future I must build . . .
Let me rise, then, to the task!

In one class at East High, the students were complaining about a difficult question on a quiz. The instructor finally admitted, "I put that question in to separate the wheat from the chaff."

One student immediately called out, "I've been reaped."

The food is great if you don't mind paying a little less for it!

And when you bite into a McDonald's hamburger, you are biting into pure beef. Top-grade lean ground chuck, plus other choice cuts for flavor. They are served on a toasty just-baked bun like you would do it at home. And those milkshakes are so thick you need one of our special straws to drink them. They couldn't be better if you made them at home. So go ahead . . . save a little!

The training of a mind is an exciting, lifetime adventure. The mind may be taught, or it may be self-trained. But, no matter the method used, an education is never finished.

If serving your fellow man through work in the business world seems challenging to you, we hope you will come see us when your school days are over.

LOOKING FORWARD TO WHAT?

Marshall McLuhan, social commentator extraordinaire, claims contemporary society is a rear-view mirror society.

The investor-owned private utilities, the energy companies, say, "What about us Mr. McLuhan? We're looking ahead. We're using nuclear generation, micro-wave monitored transmission, computerized billing procedures now."

As energy companies we have to. We're already being challenged by today and tomorrow's needs. Young people want to step into a world of tomorrow. Underground lines. Reliable service. Profitable, free enterprise oriented companies.

Well, frankly, we'll need today's graduates help. Your patronage. Your labor. Your investment dollar.

We'll need your enthusiasm and your insatiable need for modern applications of energy. We need an educated public as customers—as employees.

We plan on being ready for you!

YOUNKERS

"Satisfaction Always"

Left to Right: Tim Pearson, Terri Thomas, Sherry Anderson, Bob Cobley.

As part of Youngers firm belief in the young people of today, a program is offered for the Des Moines area schools each year . . . TEEN BOARD for junior and senior girls, and ADVISORY BOARD for junior and senior boys. These young people, selected to represent their schools, are chosen for leadership qualities, high scholastic standings, personal recommendations from school administrators and evaluation from members of the retiring boards, plus their interest and ability in retail and fashion. They participate in special fashion shows during the year, give talks in their schools and to other groups on good grooming, publish a monthly newsletter and work in various junior departments each Saturday. Youngers salutes the representatives from East High School for a job very well done.
